world-wide youth & young adult ministries

Crossfire International "Donde estas?" campamento in El Salvador January 2017

This year we led our third annual Crossfire El Salvador camp. This years camp brought together 350 youth and young adults from across 10 states of El Salvador as well as Crossfire young adult leaders from Crossfire Thailand, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Our theme for Crossfire International this year is "Donde estas?" Where are you? and we preached 4 main messages from this theme where are you? Where are you in your relationships? Where is your fire? and where are you going?

Each message as well as the ministry times were powerfully anointed by the Holy Spirit. There were around 200 youth and young adults who were saved or who rededicated their lives to Christ. There was truly an awesome move of God at this camp with most of the youth and young adults falling under the power of the Holy Spirit, many others received the gifts of tongues and prophesy for the first time. God also delivered some youth who had been oppressed by demons during these ministry times, and after the camp we received testimonies of some who were physically healed.

At the end of the second night of intense ministry the fire of God fell powerfully and we went back into worship, and for over an hour all 350 of the youth and young adults were dancing, shouting, and circling the auditorium in praise to God. This is new to many of these youth and young adults and is truly an incredible testimony of what God is doing. There was an absolutely incredible move of God at this camp.

Ohm Kittikhun Kalawanta-wanich traveled 40 hours from Thailand to be with us in El Salvador. Ohm oversees Crossfire Thailand cell groups as well as leads Crossfire Music making profesional recordings and preforming in Thailand. Ohm preformed several songs, as well as he encouraged many of the new Crossfire leaders here with powerful testimonies of what God has done through Crossfire camps, cell groups and missions in Thailand, Cambodia, Laos and Myanmar.

The fire of God from this camp has added increased momentum within Crossfire across El Salvador, Nicaragua, Honduras as well as Thailand, with many youth and young adults going into the streets to evangelize and start new cell groups!

Crossfire El Salvador testimonies and update

I wanted to also share a general update on Crossfire El Salvador, over the past two and a half years we have directed Crossfire International from El Salvador, with a special focus on developing a strong regional base for Crossfire International here in El Salvador, as well as to expand Crossfire into other Central and South American countries.

Since we have been here Crossfire has expanded into churches in 10 of the 14 states of El Salvador, and over the next few months we plan to expand Crossfire into the final 4 states.

Crossfire cell groups are now operating each week in churches across the country, with periodic evangelistic outreaches in the streets before the cell groups start. The Crossfire camp here continues to grow significantly each year both numerically as well as in how the camp is structured.

In the fall months we direct outdoor Crossfire evangelistic crusades which bring together Crossfire drama, dance and worship teams from many churches. The crusades have had amazing results both in the number of people who have been saved in the street evangelism before the crusades and in the crusades themselves.

We are also seeing great success with the Crossfire Sundays that are done in the churches, as well as many new churches are inviting us to implement Crossfire, start cell groups and train their leaders. We also lead a monthly Crossfire leaders and assistants meeting which brings together zone leaders and the main Crossfire representatives from churches across the country. During our monthly Crossfire leaders meeting we have times of worship and intercession, testimonies from the Crossfire cell groups across various parts the country, we also plan camps crusades, mission trips and major events together, and we end this time with discipleship, where we speak into the lives of these young adult leaders on leadership principles.

We have also led teams of Crossfire El Salvador leaders on several mission trips across El Salvador and from El Salvador to Honduras, Nicaragua, Peru, Chile and Guatemala. Although there is serious spiritual warfare in this country, we sense a depth to what God wants to do here, and we see the hand of God on the ministry of Crossfire International here in El Salvador and from El Salvador to the world.
