Crossfire El Salvador Update

Traego saludos de El Salvador! We wanted to begin the newsletter with an update from Crossfire El Salvador! Over the past few months, we have continued the work of expanding Crossfire in El Salvador. Each week we visit a new church to implement the Crossfire structure, launch new cell groups, train new leaders, and preach in the Sunday services. Crossfire El Salvador has recently expanded into churches in new areas such as San Marten, Amatecampo, La Paz, Metapan, Lourdes, Juasapa, and Santa Ana.

Each week we are also visiting these new cell groups and leading the lesson to demonstrate how the Crossfire lessons work. Periodically, we take the cell leaders and their assistants out into the neighborhoods to evangelize and invite new youth and young adults to come to the cell groups. This helps teach them how to actively and directly share their faith. This also teaches them how to step out and invite people, which helps the cell group grow. Praise God each week we continue to see new youth and young adults accept Christ through the evangelism and in the cell groups. Many people are accepting Christ and being touched by the power of the Holy Spirit as well during the weekly Sunday services.

We are now planning the first Crossfire Camp in El Salvador. This camp will be held at Campamiento Genesaret at Lago Ilopango. The dates of the camp are April 10th-12th. We are now putting together an official Crossfire El Salvador worship team that will consist of members from different churches that are a part of Crossfire. We are also starting a Crossfire El Salvador Drama Team and Dance Team that will be performing for the first time during this year's camp.

Another exciting dynamic to this camp will be a cultural connection between Crossfire El Salvador, Crossfire Thailand, and Crossfire Cambodia, as we Skype live on a big screen. Not only will Crossfire Cambodia have their first camp as well this year, but they will be doing their camp the same dates that we will have the first Crossfire El Salvador camp here. Our Crossfire Thailand National Director and leadership team will be in Cambodia directing this camp. We decided to take advantage of this opportunity, and over Skype, these youth and young adults will be able to greet each other in three different languages.

This experience will add to each person a more global awareness, which is God's heart for the gospel.

Crossfire South East Asia Camps, Training, and Mission Trip

We are very excited about our South East Asia camps this year! This will be our seventh year of Crossfire camps in the Philippines, our fifth year leading camps in Thailand, and our first year ever to have a Crossfire camp in Cambodia! Our first camp will be the Crossfire Thailand camp for the Karen tribe in Southwestern Thailand near the border of Myanmar (Burma). Our Crossfire Thailand team will travel from Rayong to the Karen tribal area to set up and lead this camp. The dates of this camp will be March 24th-28th.

Our next camp in South East Asia will be the first Crossfire camp in Cambodia, the dates of this camp are April 8th-11th. This camp will be held in the national director in Cambodia, is also the senior pastor of the Kuchprik Church. In this camp we will have participation from his church and 16 other churches who are a part of Crossfire in Cambodia. Pastor Apichat will be leading a mission team of Crossfire leaders from Thailand to Cambodia to direct this camp. The Crossfire Thai team will preach, lead worship, lead the games, as well as train new Crossfire leaders and pastors in Cambodia. On Saturday morning, Cambodia time, which will be Friday night El Salvador time, Crossfire El Salvador, Crossfire Cambodia, and Crossfire Thailand will meet together live via Skype .

Our third camp in South East Asia this year will be the Crossfire Philippines camp in Cagayan de Oro, Mindanao. The dates of this camp will be April 26th-27th. Several churches who are a part of Crossfire Philippines will gather from the islands of Bohol, Visayas, and Mindanao for this camp and for the leadership training that will be held there.

Crossfire Thailand Lahu Tribe Camp Chang Rai Thailand

Our final South East Asia camp will be another Crossfire Thailand camp which is for the Lahu tribe in Chang Rai. This will be our third year of having a Crossfire camp with the Lahu tribe. The dates of this camp will be April 28th-30th.

Please pray for each of these camps. Pray for God to move, for many youth and young adults to be saved, and for effective training and implementation of Crossfire in new churches that will be a part of these camps.
