“Changing this Generation, one Nation at a Time”

Crossfire El Salvador “Imparable” camp March 2018

This year we led the largest Crossfire camp yet here in El Salvador, with around 400 youth and young adults gathered together from all across the country, as well as teams of Crossfire leaders who traveled to El Salvador from Russia, Nicaragua and Honduras. Our worship was led by David Lizama, a nationally known worship leader here in El Salvador, with help from various Crossfire young adult worship teams from different churches. We also had concerts by Thrazo, a well known Central American Christian Hiphop artist, as well as Genya, one of our Crossfire leaders from Russia who preformed several of his recorded songs in Russian. Our theme this year for the Crossfire International camps and evangelistic crusades is “Unstoppable” (Imparable in Spanish). We preached several strong messages about how God is calling and empowering this generation to be unstoppable in their faith in the midst of what the devil wants to use to try and stop them. We hit on subjects such as wrong relationships, negative influences, temptations, gang violence, threats, fear of persecution for sharing Christ with others and standing for whats right, as well as family problems.

There were close to 300 youth and young adults who either accepted Christ for the first time or rededicated their lives to Christ during the camp. The times of ministry were extremely powerful, with many young people filled with the Holy Spirit, set free, and healed by the power of God. One particular testimony that sticks out is that of a 21 year old young adult named Isabel. She is the fiancé of Edwin Velasquez, one of the main Crossfire El Salvador leaders. Before she came to camp, she had been diagnosed with ovarian cancer. We prayed for her during the first night ministry time, and later she told us that when she was being prayed for she felt fire in her body. After the camp she went back to the the doctor to do more testing and all of the tests came back negative for cancer, Praise God!

Although there is a spiritual battle in this country, we are seeing real momentum and God is moving. We are blessed simply to be a part of what God is doing! Not only did this camp have a significant impact here in the lives of youth and young adults across El Salvador, but also the Crossfire teams that traveled to El Salvador from Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama and Russia were greatly impacted and are returning to their countries with a new passion and fire!

We have also been working close with our National Directors and Crossfire leaders in other parts of the world, leading Crossfire camps, mission trips and crusades. In Thailand this year, we led two camps, one in Chang Rai in the far Northern part of Thailand near Laos and Burma and the other in the south in Petchaburi. In Peru we led a Crossfire "Imparable" camp in Callao. In Philippines, our national director Larachel led the Crossfire camp in Mindanao with several teams of pastors, and youth and young adults who traveled to Mindanao from the islands of Bohol and Camiguin.

In April, we led the "Unstoppable" camp in Nairobi, Kenya with youth and young adults from across Kenya, as well as visitors from Uganda and Tanzania. Later on this month in June Pastor Apichat (National Director of Crossfire Thailand) will lead a team of Crossfire Thailand young adult leaders on a mission trip from Thailand to Cambodia to lead our Cambodia camp and Crossfire implementation in new churches. In September our Crossfire Thailand team will lead another mission trip, this time traveling from Thailand to Burma to lead the Crossfire Burma camp and train new cell leaders.

This month we begin our schedule of Crossfire evangelistic crusades that will take place through the summer and into the fall around the world. Our teams of leaders will lead youth and young adults on the streets and door to door in evangelism several hours before the crusades begin. We will then continue with open air crusades that will feature teams of Crossfire youth and young adults leading worship, dramas and dance, followed by a strong evangelistic message. The crusades will take place in amphitheaters, parks, and on the streets in populated areas of cities.

We have already received incredible testimonies of salvations, healings, and young people being set free by the power of God through these Crossfire camps in different parts of the world so far this year. We are believing God for continued favor as we finish the remaining camps and start into the summer and fall evangelistic crusades and mission trips around the world.

Please pray for protection, favor, and a strong anointing of the Holy Spirit as we lead these crusades here in gang controlled parts of El Salvador and other dangerous locations around the world. Please pray that many more youth and young adults will come to know Christ through these remaining Crossfire camps, crusades, and mission trips!
